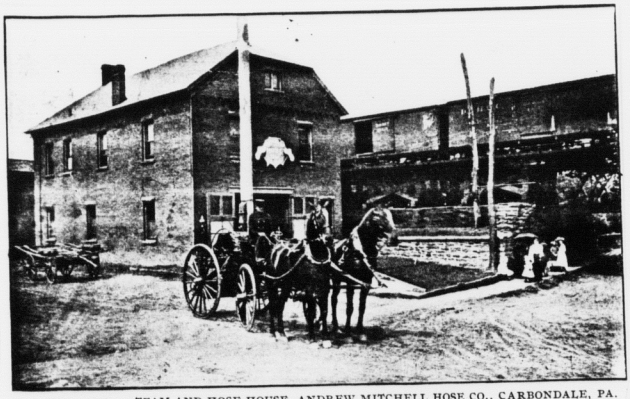
THE CARBONDALE (PA.) NEWS, Volume 110, Number 12, Wednesday, March 24, 1982, page 1



W. B. Foster, Pub. TEAM AND HOSE HOUSE, ANDREW MITCHELL HOSE CO., CARBONDALE, PA.

TEAM AND HOSE HOUSE, ANDREW MITCHELL HOSE COMPANY, CARBONDALE. This black and white post card is in the collection of S. Robert Powell, Carbondale. Printed at the lower left on the front of this card is "W.B. Foster, Pub." Shown in this photograph are Dan and Diamond, the handsome team of chestnut horses owned by the company when it was organized on February 12, 1892. Shown in the background are two Delaware & Hudson cars on the trestle that once passed behind the hose company. Dan and Diamond were not the only celebrated team of fire horses in Carbondale in the 1890s. A handsome team of black horses, Fan and Flora, were owned by the Columbia Hose Company.